

Eruptions

The only way to get rid of pimples and other eruptions is to cleanse the blood, improve the digestion, stimulate the kidneys, liver and skin. The medicine to take is Hood's Sarsaparilla Which has cured thousands.

CAROLINA SHUT OUT BY BLACKSBURG BOYS

(Continued from First Page.)

ward, but it afforded little comfort to the spectators, who had to face a biting northwest wind, that made the fingers numb and caused the teeth to chatter.

Nevertheless, the game was sharp enough, and the interest so well maintained that few thought of the discomfort or knew just how cold it was until the game ended.

The crowd was disappointing. Hardly two thousand people viewed the pretty battle on a faultless field, and of these scarcely eight hundred occupied the grandstand. Both teams had a liberal following, and the colors of the two eleven were about evenly divided in popularity. A few of the blue and white. They had few occasions for enthusiasm, and hence there were few upheavals of blue and white. The maroon and orange banners were everywhere in evidence during the game, and at the end of the first half the spectators were so great for unusual enthusiasm, and after Carpenter's long run there was no remarkable outburst. When the Georgetown-Charles score was posted on the board, the figures showed, were on top—eleven to nothing.

Carolina Applauded.

Carolina appeared on the field at 2:30 and were liberally applauded as they went through signal practice and punting and running downs under p.m.s. Just ten minutes later the half hour from Blacksburg started on the field, and they were given a rousing cheer as the Carolinians retired from the field and the Techs began running under the ball, rolling on the ground and lining up and breaking away.

It was fifteen minutes later when Carolina won the toss and chose the west goal, with the wind in their favor. As the sequel proved, the tow was about all the plucky Chapel Hill boys were destined to win. At 3:05 the first play was an spinning toward Carolina's goal, the wind sailing the punt to the side line at the ten yard mark. It was brought out and on the first line-up Mann, who was given the ball, carried right and for twenty yards he was met by a line of blockers who got around for another twenty. This start struck terror to the hearts of Virginia enthusiasts, for a walk-over for the down homers seemed assured. Donnelly, Chester and Foust, three colored blockers, made a first down, and on the next plunge Mann was thrown for a loss by Carpenter. Another try sided another loss, and Berkeley dropped back for a punt. He sent the ball spinning to Carpenter on Virginia's twenty yard line. It was a slow punt and the receiver could gain but three yards before the blue and white blockers were upon him. It was Virginia's ball on her twenty-third yard line, and Miles got around a Carolina end for three yards. Then came the first sensation and the spectacular play of the game, one of the most brilliant and sensational ever seen on a Virginia gridiron. The ball was passed to Carpenter, and he started around left end. Emerging from the bunch, he was seen running like a deer with the ball tucked under his arm and every man on his team blocking for him. With the machine-like precision of his interference, he was able to get through almost the entire field, but there were yet two or three feet Carolinians in hot pursuit or crouching in his path.

An Artful Dodger.

When confronted by a sturdy Carolinian he would hesitate a moment, then artfully dodge, and his blockers would thrust the others aside. Several times he seemed to be surely stopped, once his leg being clamped by Foust. But that was not the end of that run. Wriggling, twisting, springing, he started back and showed off the Carolinians as though they had been children, and finally, with one man between him and a clear field, he surprised everybody by a startling play. Leaping into the air, he successfully hurdled the crowd in his path, and still protected by his blockers, was away down the field for a touchdown, after a run of just eighty-five yards through the entire Carolina team. It was simply magnificent. Then a play of individual work and a masterfully executed display of team work. Carpenter tried to add a point to the score by kicking goal, but failed, the ball going almost over the post, owing to its deflection by the wind. Then came Virginia's Polytex technique, S. Carolina, 0.

The teams changed goals and Berkeley kicked off to Miles on the ten-yard line. The interference quickly formed and aided by it, Captain Miles was able to run the ball back twenty yards. V. P. I. then started its steady progress toward the goal. Carpenter hit the line for five yards, and he shot through tackle, and was down the field like a flash. When he was thrown the line men moved their legs forty yards. The Counselman shot through the Carolina line for thirty yards. A fumble followed, and a Carolinian fell on the ball on his own ten-yard line. It was but a temporary stop, for the victorious march of the Virginians, however, after several plays a into the unyielding maroon line the Carolinians were penalized ten yards to off-side play, and forced to punt, but a Carolinian got it. The Virginia line was unyielding, and Carol was penalized ten yards for off-side play, and had to punt the ball out of danger. Carpenter got it, ran it back five yards, and Byrd added two more. Carpenter then got through for ten yards, Miles for two, Carpenter was again called on, and responded with seven yards' advance. The ball on the one-yard line, and Counselman went over for the second touchdown. No goal. Score: Virginia, 10; Carolina, 0.

Carpenter kicked off to Mann on the two-yard line, and he ran the ball back sixteen yards. Berkeley circled Blacksburg's right end for ten yards, but being unable to gain, went for a punt, but recovered the ball on Bear's fumble. Several penalties were imposed, and Carolina being unable to gain, punted. Bear was thrown on his two-yard line, and many thought a safety had been scored, but it was not quite. V. P. I. rushed the ball rapidly down the field, Carpenter plunging through the line for twenty-two yards, and dragging tacklers with him. With the ball on their thirty-five-yard line, the Carolinians were unable to check the catapult plunges of the odds, though they crowded low at their feet and snatched their snags for the run. Run by Byrd, Wilson, Carpenter and Miles landed another touchdown, Miles making the score. The punt out was not good, and so a chance for goal was lost. Score:

V. P. I., 15; Carolina, 0. The half closed immediately, and, in fact, should have closed before the score was made, but the timekeeper failed to notify Referee Armstrong.

The Second Was Hard.

The second half was a hard, grueling contest, in which Carolina showed its splendid staying powers, holding their conquerors to a single touchdown. It was, indeed, a stubborn resistance, but the V. P. I. backs just could not be stopped by the light Carolina line. A fake kick contributed to the march of V. P. I. to goal. Byrd, Wilson and Carpenter rushed the ball down close to the blue and white line, but a penalty forced Carpenter to punt. Carolina could not gain, and yielded the ball on downs on her twelve yard line. Wilson and Carpenter covered this distance in two plunges, and Captain Miles kicked an easy goal. Score, 21 to 0.

There was no more scoring after this, though Virginia twice worked the fake kick for gains, one of twenty-five yards by Carpenter and another of eight by Wilson. The ball was in midfield when time was called. The victors, after giving their own yell, generously cheered the vanquished. The line-up: V. P. I. Point, Wright, left end; Robbins, Donnelly, left tackle; Wilson, Perry, left guard; Walsh, Stewart, center; Stiles, Albright, right guard; Abbott, Jones, right tackle; Miles, Cox, right end; Lewis, Engle, quarterback; Bear, Berkeley, left halfback; Byrd, (Hodgson), fullback; Carpenter, Mann, right halfback; Counselman, Referee—Mr. Armstrong (Yale). Umpire—Mr. Johnson (V. M. I.). Linesmen—Messrs. Robertson and Hodgson. Touchdowns—Carpenter (2), Counselman, Miles. Goals from touchdowns—Miles. Score: V. P. I., 21; University of North Carolina, 0. A. H. T.

TOURNAMENT.

Big Crowd Attended From Four Counties.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) MEHERRIN, VA., Nov. 7.—Eleven knights, arrayed in flashing colors of red, blue, white and green entered yesterday afternoon the contest for four honors in the first tournament that has been held here for over ten years. The track was muddy and the riding was not up to the expectations of the huge crowd present.

Eight rings took first honor, Mr. M. C. Jenkins caught them and crowned Miss Helen Coleman queen of love and beauty. Seven rings took the second honor, which was a tie and afterwards rode out by Messrs. Holt and Barkdale. Mr. Holt winning out for second honor and crowning Miss Jennie Price. The third honor was won by Mr. Fenn Redd and Miss Ruby Ranson was crowned second maid of honor. The fourth and last honor was won by Mr. J. S. Shackleton and the honor was given Miss Mamie Fowles.

At 8 o'clock the guests repaired to The Cedars and in a spacious room, John J. Owen, representative from Prince Edward county, made the coronation address. Dancing was then commenced and kept up continuously through the night. A bountiful supper was served. The number of guests present will go over one hundred. The crowd came from Prince Edward, Lunenburg, Charlotte and Nottingham counties.

Wedding Cards.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CLIFTON FORGE, VA., Nov. 7.—Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Mr. Charles W. Revercomb of this place, to Miss Lella Lowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lowman, of Millboro. The marriage will take place at Windy Cove Church at 8 A. M. Wednesday, November 18th.

COLUMBIAN IS BEATEN

Collegians do Good Work in First Half of the Contest With the Washington Boys.

BEST GAME PLAYED HERE

Visitors Made a Kick on the Umpire, Who Threw Up His Job—The Game.

Captain Smith, of the Richmond College team, set a bad example to his men yesterday afternoon, when he threw his head-piece at the ball while in play to block a point aimed at by the Columbian University team.

Fortunately for the team's record, it happened near the end of the game, and was not followed up by any similar act. During two long halves the Richmond boys had held the score to 22 to 0 in the game. All the points had been gained in the first half, and the Washington boys were creeping up slowly, but surely toward the Richmond goal. They had reached the ten-yard line, then the five, then two, then one, and over, after some good resistance on the part of Richmond, the game closed with the score, 22 to 6.

In the first half Richmond put up the best game ever played by the team. From the kick off, it was a fierce onslaught for gains, and all the m-u-u-u-u-u-u-u-u-u in Washington territory.

It was one of the roughest, as well as the hardest fought contests ever played by Richmond College, and that team put up in the first half some fine work, all of which reflected credit on their coach.

At the end of the first half, Richmond was 22 to 0 to the good. The visitors had received a startling surprise.

Then they got together and consulted, and it was decided to make a kick against the officials.

The main kick was on a play by Smith, perfectly legitimate, by which a touchdown was scored. It occurred this way: Columbia had endeavored to make gains by a back kick, having failed to do so on the fourth and last play, and went out of bounds. Smith landed on it, and carried the ball back to the point at which it left bounds. He quickly touched down and punted to the two-yard line, and Huggins put it over for a score.

Upon this play the Washingtonians kicked. They were overruled, and the play proceeded. At the close of the half objection was made to Umpire Nelson, and that gentleman withdrew from the game. Mr. Alexander, of Cornell, who came with the visitors from Washington, took his place.

Both sides played the game to the hilt. It was gained by the most aggressive tactics, and the touchdown was made by Lankford, who, at the five yard line, went through the center like a base-ball player stealing third base. No goal was kicked.

Spilman made the next touchdown, and only two minutes' play was indulged in. Washington had the ball, and endeavored to make gains on the fake kick, without success.

The next touchdown was made on Smith's kick, to which objection was raised, making the score sixteen. Lankford made another fine play for the last touchdown, making a good sprint from the forty yard line to goal, after the ball had been in play three minutes. Smith kicked goal, and the score stood 22 to 0, which was not changed during the half.

Both sides fought stubbornly in the second half, but it was seen at once that Richmond's line had weakened. Several changes were made. Rollins went in for Powell at left guard; Fraser relieved Wright at right end, and Sutherland took Woodin's place at left end.

Despite the freshening of the line, the visitors continued to make steady gains through the line, which had been almost impenetrable in the first half.

Washington to score. Strong opposition was met after the ten yard line had been passed. The crowd on the west side of the field were shouting for the Colts, and when the ball was put over by Belaski a big shout went up, which was answered derisively by the big crowd of College rooters in the south bleachers, and the ladies in the grandstand. Kirkman kicked goal, and two minutes the game was over. The line-up: Richmond. Position. Washington. Woodin, left end; Stinson, (Sutherland), (Jones), Huggins, left tackle; Heine, Fowler, left guard; Heine, (Rollins), Webster, center; Woods, Anderson, right guard; Stanley, Snead, right tackle; Perry, Tack, Wright, right end; Snead, Tombs, quarterback; Kirkman, Smith, left halfback; Belaski, Spilman, right halfback; Warner, Lankford, fullback; Bunsen, Alexander, Touchdowns—Lankford (2), Spilman, Smith, Belaski. Goals—Smith, Kirkman. Richmond, 22; Washington, 6.

NATURE'S GREATEST CURE FOR MEN AND WOMEN

Swamp-Root is the Most Perfect Healer and Natural Aid to the Kidneys, Liver and Bladder Ever Discovered.

SWAMP-ROOT SAVED MY LIFE.

I received promptly the sample bottle of your kidney remedy, Swamp-Root. I had an awful pain in my back, over the kidneys, and it was relieved.

There comes a time to both men and women when sickness and poor health bring anxiety and trouble hard to bear; disappointment seems to follow every effort of physicians in our behalf, and remedies we try have little or no effect. In many such cases serious mistakes are made in doctoring, and not knowing what the disease is, or what makes us sick. Kind nature warns us by certain symptoms, which are unmistakable evidence of danger, such as too frequent desire to urinate, scanty supply, scalding irritation, pain or dull ache in the back—they tell us in silence that our kidneys need doctoring. If neglected now, the disease advances until the face looks pale or sallow, puffy or dark circles under the eyes, feel swell, and sometimes the heart acts badly.

There is comfort in knowing that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, fulfills every wish in quickly relieving such troubles. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate.

My kidneys and bladder gave me great trouble for over two months and I suffered untold misery. I became weak, emaciated and very much run down. I had great difficulty in retaining my urine, and was obliged to pass water very late at night and after I had used a sample bottle of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, sent me on my request, I experienced relief and I immediately bought of my druggist two large bottles and continued taking it regularly. I am pleased to say that Swamp-Root cured me entirely. I can now stand on my feet all day without any bad symptoms whatever. Swamp-Root has proved a blessing to me.

Gratefully yours, T. S. APKER, Sec. F. A. & I. U. 504, Marsh Hill, Pa. April 23, 1908.

To Prove What SWAMP-ROOT, the Great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy Will do for YOU, Every Reader of the Richmond Sunday Times-Dispatch May have a Sample Bottle FREE by Mail.

EDITORIAL NOTICE—If you are sick or "feel badly," send at once to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., who will gladly send you by mail, immediately, without cost to you, a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, and a book telling all about it, and containing many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women cured. In writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure to say that you read this generous offer in the Richmond Sunday Times-Dispatch.

If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at the drug stores everywhere. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

results. Then a kick was made, and on the catch Spilman sprinted for a clean forty-five yards for a touchdown, from which Smith kicked goal, making the score eleven.

The next touchdown was made on Smith's kick, to which objection was raised, making the score sixteen. Lankford made another fine play for the last touchdown, making a good sprint from the forty yard line to goal, after the ball had been in play three minutes. Smith kicked goal, and the score stood 22 to 0, which was not changed during the half.

Both sides fought stubbornly in the second half, but it was seen at once that Richmond's line had weakened. Several changes were made. Rollins went in for Powell at left guard; Fraser relieved Wright at right end, and Sutherland took Woodin's place at left end.

Despite the freshening of the line, the visitors continued to make steady gains through the line, which had been almost impenetrable in the first half.

Washington to score. Strong opposition was met after the ten yard line had been passed. The crowd on the west side of the field were shouting for the Colts, and when the ball was put over by Belaski a big shout went up, which was answered derisively by the big crowd of College rooters in the south bleachers, and the ladies in the grandstand. Kirkman kicked goal, and two minutes the game was over. The line-up: Richmond. Position. Washington. Woodin, left end; Stinson, (Sutherland), (Jones), Huggins, left tackle; Heine, Fowler, left guard; Heine, (Rollins), Webster, center; Woods, Anderson, right guard; Stanley, Snead, right tackle; Perry, Tack, Wright, right end; Snead, Tombs, quarterback; Kirkman, Smith, left halfback; Belaski, Spilman, right halfback; Warner, Lankford, fullback; Bunsen, Alexander, Touchdowns—Lankford (2), Spilman, Smith, Belaski. Goals—Smith, Kirkman. Richmond, 22; Washington, 6.

Both sides fought stubbornly in the second half, but it was seen at once that Richmond's line had weakened. Several changes were made. Rollins went in for Powell at left guard; Fraser relieved Wright at right end, and Sutherland took Woodin's place at left end.

Despite the freshening of the line, the visitors continued to make steady gains through the line, which had been almost impenetrable in the first half.

Washington to score. Strong opposition was met after the ten yard line had been passed. The crowd on the west side of the field were shouting for the Colts, and when the ball was put over by Belaski a big shout went up, which was answered derisively by the big crowd of College rooters in the south bleachers, and the ladies in the grandstand. Kirkman kicked goal, and two minutes the game was over. The line-up: Richmond. Position. Washington. Woodin, left end; Stinson, (Sutherland), (Jones), Huggins, left tackle; Heine, Fowler, left guard; Heine, (Rollins), Webster, center; Woods, Anderson, right guard; Stanley, Snead, right tackle; Perry, Tack, Wright, right end; Snead, Tombs, quarterback; Kirkman, Smith, left halfback; Belaski, Spilman, right halfback; Warner, Lankford, fullback; Bunsen, Alexander, Touchdowns—Lankford (2), Spilman, Smith, Belaski. Goals—Smith, Kirkman. Richmond, 22; Washington, 6.

Both sides fought stubbornly in the second half, but it was seen at once that Richmond's line had weakened. Several changes were made. Rollins went in for Powell at left guard; Fraser relieved Wright at right end, and Sutherland took Woodin's place at left end.

Despite the freshening of the line, the visitors continued to make steady gains through the line, which had been almost impenetrable in the first half.

Washington to score. Strong opposition was met after the ten yard line had been passed. The crowd on the west side of the field were shouting for the Colts, and when the ball was put over by Belaski a big shout went up, which was answered derisively by the big crowd of College rooters in the south bleachers, and the ladies in the grandstand. Kirkman kicked goal, and two minutes the game was over. The line-up: Richmond. Position. Washington. Woodin, left end; Stinson, (Sutherland), (Jones), Huggins, left tackle; Heine, Fowler, left guard; Heine, (Rollins), Webster, center; Woods, Anderson, right guard; Stanley, Snead, right tackle; Perry, Tack, Wright, right end; Snead, Tombs, quarterback; Kirkman, Smith, left halfback; Belaski, Spilman, right halfback; Warner, Lankford, fullback; Bunsen, Alexander, Touchdowns—Lankford (2), Spilman, Smith, Belaski. Goals—Smith, Kirkman. Richmond, 22; Washington, 6.

Both sides fought stubbornly in the second half, but it was seen at once that Richmond's line had weakened. Several changes were made. Rollins went in for Powell at left guard; Fraser relieved Wright at right end, and Sutherland took Woodin's place at left end.

Despite the freshening of the line, the visitors continued to make steady gains through the line, which had been almost impenetrable in the first half.

Washington to score. Strong opposition was met after the ten yard line had been passed. The crowd on the west side of the field were shouting for the Colts, and when the ball was put over by Belaski a big shout went up, which was answered derisively by the big crowd of College rooters in the south bleachers, and the ladies in the grandstand. Kirkman kicked goal, and two minutes the game was over. The line-up: Richmond. Position. Washington. Woodin, left end; Stinson, (Sutherland), (Jones), Huggins, left tackle; Heine, Fowler, left guard; Heine, (Rollins), Webster, center; Woods, Anderson, right guard; Stanley, Snead, right tackle; Perry, Tack, Wright, right end; Snead, Tombs, quarterback; Kirkman, Smith, left halfback; Belaski, Spilman, right halfback; Warner, Lankford, fullback; Bunsen, Alexander, Touchdowns—Lankford (2), Spilman, Smith, Belaski. Goals—Smith, Kirkman. Richmond, 22; Washington, 6.

Both sides fought stubbornly in the second half, but it was seen at once that Richmond's line had weakened. Several changes were made. Rollins went in for Powell at left guard; Fraser relieved Wright at right end, and Sutherland took Woodin's place at left end.

Despite the freshening of the line, the visitors continued to make steady gains through the line, which had been almost impenetrable in the first half.

Washington to score. Strong opposition was met after the ten yard line had been passed. The crowd on the west side of the field were shouting for the Colts, and when the ball was put over by Belaski a big shout went up, which was answered derisively by the big crowd of College rooters in the south bleachers, and the ladies in the grandstand. Kirkman kicked goal, and two minutes the game was over. The line-up: Richmond. Position. Washington. Woodin, left end; Stinson, (Sutherland), (Jones), Huggins, left tackle; Heine, Fowler, left guard; Heine, (Rollins), Webster, center; Woods, Anderson, right guard; Stanley, Snead, right tackle; Perry, Tack, Wright, right end; Snead, Tombs, quarterback; Kirkman, Smith, left halfback; Belaski, Spilman, right halfback; Warner, Lankford, fullback; Bunsen, Alexander, Touchdowns—Lankford (2), Spilman, Smith, Belaski. Goals—Smith, Kirkman. Richmond, 22; Washington, 6.

Both sides fought stubbornly in the second half, but it was seen at once that Richmond's line had weakened. Several changes were made. Rollins went in for Powell at left guard; Fraser relieved Wright at right end, and Sutherland took Woodin's place at left end.

Despite the freshening of the line, the visitors continued to make steady gains through the line, which had been almost impenetrable in the first half.

Washington to score. Strong opposition was met after the ten yard line had been passed. The crowd on the west side of the field were shouting for the Colts, and when the ball was put over by Belaski a big shout went up, which was answered derisively by the big crowd of College rooters in the south bleachers, and the ladies in the grandstand. Kirkman kicked goal, and two minutes the game was over. The line-up: Richmond. Position. Washington. Woodin, left end; Stinson, (Sutherland), (Jones), Huggins, left tackle; Heine, Fowler, left guard; Heine, (Rollins), Webster, center; Woods, Anderson, right guard; Stanley, Snead, right tackle; Perry, Tack, Wright, right end; Snead, Tombs, quarterback; Kirkman, Smith, left halfback; Belaski, Spilman, right halfback; Warner, Lankford, fullback; Bunsen, Alexander, Touchdowns—Lankford (2), Spilman, Smith, Belaski. Goals—Smith, Kirkman. Richmond, 22; Washington, 6.

NEW ORDERS BY SIGNAL

Collier Marcellus Bound Out the Capes for Pensacola Ordered to Go to Guantanamo.

EAGLE TO GO TO ISTHMUS

Holding of Jamestown Exposition Depends on Liberality of Transportation Companies.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., November 7.—The naval collier Marcellus, loaded with coal for Pensacola, left port this morning, bound for that navy yard. Before she reached the capes, however, the commandant's office of this station was directed by the department to catch her as she passed out and change her orders to Guantanamo.

At that point she will be held in readiness to coal the great American squadron expected to be assembled off the coast of the Isthmus at once. This will give the American ships two colliers from which to draw fuel.

No orders affecting the situation in Panama have as yet been received at this naval station, other than the orders to the Marcellus.

It is thought, however, that the little auxiliary cruiser Eagle, now in Hampton Roads, will be dispatched to the Isthmus.

A railway to connect Portsmouth and Suffolk now seems to be assured. Two companies are understood to be at work on the scheme, and they may soon combine their forces and build the road. Two routes have already been surveyed, and negotiations are in progress for a right of way.

John Lewis Davis, seventeen years old, who enlisted in the navy at Birmingham, in the Federal Court, today flatly contradicted his mother's statement that he enlisted without her consent.

The boy testified that he did not wish to return home. The case goes over until the mother's deposition can be taken and the assisting officer appears.

JAMESTOWN'S MILLION. The Jamestown Exposition will be held, provided the transportation interests of this section do all they can for it. This is the consensus of opinion among those familiar with the working out of the great undertaking.

Instead of the $10,000 subscriptions, which, it is understood, the lines are prepared to make, it is understood that they will be asked for fifty thousand dollars.

This will amount to three or four hundred thousand dollars, and with $10 subscriptions expected by the first of December will, in all probability, enable the company to go before the Legislature in January and claim the benefit of the act, which was passed on the condition that the entire issue of one million dollars of stock should be subscribed by that date.

Miss Anne Armstrong, of Baltimore, to-day addressed the Baptist Union Mission of Virginia, on the subject of Miss Housom's missionary work. Miss Florence Barnett, of Roanoke, spoke on the topic, "Our Young Women; How to Win Them."

Mr. Joseph Dunnington, of the senior class of Union Theological Seminary, will preach in Tabernacle Presbyterian Church, Petersburg, at both the morning and the evening services today. Mr. Dunnington is a brilliant student and a polished speaker. He is a member of the class of the Great Southern Institute.

Rev. J. S. Crowley, formerly a missionary to Africa, now attending lectures at Union Seminary, will preach at the Baptist Church at 8 o'clock this morning and at Howardsville to-night. Mr. Crowley will deliver missionary addresses, and will exhibit many interesting curios and relics from Africa.

Mr. Plummer F. Jones, of the senior class of Virginia, on the subject of the Presbyterian Church in America this morning, and Mr. Eugene C. Caldwell, of the same class, will preach in the evening.

Mr. W. P. M. Currie will preach at Granite Presbyterian Church, Chesterfield, to-day. He will exhibit many interesting curios and relics from Africa.

Many other pupils in and around the city will be filled by the upper classmen of the Seminary.

Residents of Westhampton annoyed by Sunday hunters. The authorities have been notified and are on the watch.

OBITUARY. Joseph G. Fulton.

A telegram was received last night by Captain Frank W. Cunningham from a daughter of Captain Joseph G. Fulton, of Old Point, stating that her father died at home yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Captain Fulton was a widely known Mason, and was a member of Aca Temple, Mystic Shrine. He had many friends here, who will be grieved to learn of his loss.

Great Rejoicing. (By Associated Press.) COLON, COLOMBIA, Nov. 7.—The United States cruiser Atlanta arrived here this morning. The people here are frantic with delight at the United States' recognition of the de facto government of the Republic of Panama.

The president-elect of Emperor, Penonomé, San Carlos, and Arzunan, have announced their adherence to the new Republic of Panama.

General Gutierrez, who arrived at Colon Thursday to replace Governor Obaldia, called for Cartagena the same day on the steamer Orizaba, which took the Colombian troops from Colon.

The following provisional appointments have been made here: Governor and Military Chief, Porfirio Arango; Secretary of the Government, Cristóbal Uribe; Alcaldé, Benigno Andolón; Treasurer, Antonio Oceano; Commandant of Police, Manuel Paredes.

CONSTIPATION. The most common form of Dyspepsia, Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills (white wrapper), one after each meal, cure the most obstinate cases. They contain no mercury, do not purge nor grip, and impart a natural healthy tone to the stomach and bowels. 25 cts. a box. Dr. Deane's Pills are regular.

DEATHS. BOOHER—Died Saturday, November 7, 1908. Survived by mother, sister, two brothers, and other relatives. Funeral services at the Central Baptist Church (colored) at 2 P. M.

JOSEPH G. FULTON. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FORT MONROE, Nov. 7.—Mr. Joseph G. Fulton, who has been wagon and forage master in the quartermaster's department at this post for about forty years, and who was a prominent Mason, Odd-Fellow and Grand Army man, died here this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

DEATHS. BOOHER—Died Saturday, November 7, 1908. Survived by mother, sister, two brothers, and other relatives. Funeral services at the Central Baptist Church (colored) at 2 P. M.

JOSEPH G. FULTON. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FORT MONROE, Nov. 7.—Mr. Joseph G. Fulton, who has been wagon and forage master in the quartermaster's department at this post for about forty years, and who was a prominent Mason, Odd-Fellow and Grand Army man, died here this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

DEATHS. BOOHER—Died Saturday, November 7, 1908. Survived by mother, sister, two brothers, and other relatives. Funeral services at the Central Baptist Church (colored) at 2 P. M.

JOSEPH G. FULTON. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FORT MONROE, Nov. 7.—Mr. Joseph G. Fulton, who has been wagon and forage master in the quartermaster's department at this post for about forty years, and who was a prominent Mason, Odd-Fellow and Grand Army man, died here this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

DEATHS. BOOHER—Died Saturday, November 7, 1908. Survived by mother, sister, two brothers, and other relatives. Funeral services at the Central Baptist Church (colored) at 2 P. M.

JOSEPH G. FULTON. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FORT MONROE, Nov. 7.—Mr. Joseph G. Fulton, who has been wagon and forage master in the quartermaster's department at this post for about forty years, and who was a prominent Mason, Odd-Fellow and Grand Army man, died here this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

DEATHS. BOOHER—Died Saturday, November 7, 1908. Survived by mother, sister, two brothers, and other relatives. Funeral services at the Central Baptist Church (colored) at 2 P. M.

A CASE WORTH LOOKING INTO.

If your case is the usual case of Fall. This case will suit your case for Fall.

Top Coat—medium weight Long Coat—heavy weight Double-Breasted Coat—Belted Traveling Coat, long and roomy—Tight-fitting, long Dress Overcoats, $7.80 to $48.00. Rain Coats—$10.00 to $28.00.